I'm so saddened to hear this. I've known Annette and some of her brothers and sisters from 50+ years ago when her mom worked 3rd shift as a nurse in VA. I've got so many memories growing up in Va. Please know I'm praying for peace and comfort for Michael and her family. Cindy Darnell Woodard - Gordonsville, VA

Netti,

You were one of the best people I have ever met. I have few words to do you enough justice. I will be strong and live up to the person you always saw in me. My world is smaller now and I will forever hold you in my heart.

“ Annette was my favorite sister. She came from a family of 11 children and was loved my all. She was the one who looked the most like our mom and had her personality. Woke up yesterday and it was the first time I didn't have my Lucy in my life. I'm going to miss her every day for the rest of my life.
