“ Miss Annie was such a sweet, kind, gentle woman. I enjoyed helping while she was with her sister Ms. Sheila, and nephew Sean. We spent several nights together, talking and I love to hear her laugh. God bless you and your family.

“ Caring for Annie was always easy. She could get a little rowled up but apologized for her indiscretions and thanked you for your help and assistance. We all loved her here at Bayleigh Chase. It was especially sad to see her decline, because she would want to get up and walk around the unit most days. It was amazing to have someone as active as she was at her age. I will miss you, Miss Annie. We loved you. Rest in peace.
