Lorraine,

Losing someone you love is like losing a part of yourself. You miss them and you miss who you were with them; nothing will ever replace that. But, every time you recall a moment of laughter or doing something that you did together, you will feel that part of you again and you will find comfort in remembering, and that memory becomes a treasure.

We wish you strength for today and hope for tomorrow!

Love,
Lucy, Chuck, Julianne and Alexandra
