

April Marie Goins

December 9, 1979 - July 27, 2013

April Marie Goins of Stevensville, MD, died Saturday, July 27, 2013, at the Hospice Center in Centreville after a 15 year battle with brain tumors. She was 33.

Born December 9, 1979, in Baltimore, MD, she was the daughter of Kim Marie Duncan Goins and the late Glenn Curtis Goins.

She graduated from Queen Anne's High School Class of 1997. Upon graduation she joined the Kent Island Fire Department and became a volunteer EMT. She loved working with the fire department and wanted to pursue getting her paramedics license, but, due to her illness, she was forced to give up her dream. Through continued health battles, she kept a positive attitude on life. She enjoyed NASCAR and loved the Baltimore Ravens. Her greatest joy was her daughter, Delaney.

In addition to her mother, April is survived by her daughter, Delaney Hope; a sister, Terra Goins; and a brother Glenn Goins, III, all of Stevensville. She is also survived by many aunts, uncles and cousins, and her friends from the fire department.

A visitation will be Wednesday, July 31, 2013, at Fellows, Helfenbein & Newnam Funeral Home in Chester, MD from 2-4 p.m. and 6-8.m. In lieu of flowers, memorial donation checks may be made out to Kim Goins for a trust for Delaney Hope Rutherford and sent to 6 Petinot Court, Stevensville, MD 21666 or donations can be made to Hospice of Queen Anne's, Inc. 255 Comet Drive, Centreville, MD 21617.

*Delaney sits by your picture and talks to you. She keeps asking when her mommy will come back and see her. My heart breaks for her but my heart is crushed because I lost my baby girl. I never thought anything could hurt so much. Rest in peace my beautiful daughter, "I hope you Dance" your always in my heart and forever on my mind.

“ April,
I have so many memories of you. I would look forward to coming and staying with me in summer when you were young. I took my vacation every year when you would come up. I had so much fun with you and Mary. You girls kept me laughing. I enjoyed our last talks we had about a month ago. You made me smile again telling me how special those times you spent were meant that much to you. You had a special gift in making people smile. You were a very brave young woman facing all the sickness you endured with such grace. I think you are an inspiration to anyone facing an illness. You had a beautiful daughter and I can't wait until she is old enough to spend a time with us in the summer as you did with your cousins. I will carry on the tradition that you and Mary started. As I told you on the phone such a short time ago, I loved you then and I will always love you. You are in my heart forever. You will always be my niece. Your father is holding you in his arms now and will take care of you. Give Mary a kiss for me. Love Aunt Dena

April, I never met you, but I know your mother. I hope to meet her one day, but till then I hope you know that you had the ability to touch people whom you never met or may never have known. Your mother is an amazing, special person whom without her support I would surely not be here today. Death and grief are the hardest damn things to deal with, but I know your mama and your family are relieved that you can be with your dad and free from suffering. I know that dear little girl of yours is an amazing person as well as is your whole family...you all have something special and I want you to know how deeply you and your family have touched my heart and soul without even knowing it. Kim, nothing I say or do can ever make things the same again or okay, but please know that i care very deeply about you, April and the rest of your family. I don't know how it is to lose a child, but I do know how it is to lose many people who were once very close to me. There is never any easy answer or easy solution to feeling "okay", but know that I love you all dearly and keep you in my thoughts daily. I hope that with each day, your daughter's spirit will continue to live on as your husband's does and that you will continue to remain close with her. I wish you the very best in what you must deal with now. If I could, I'd be there in a heartbeat for the service, but I will do my best to be there for you and your family in every other way possible. With much Love, care, concern, and heartfelt emotion, Sarah F.

“ Words are just not enough to express my love and respect that I have for you April... You fought your battles bravely... You were able to endure so much in your short time here.. Your strength will carry on in your Mom, your sister and your brother as they pick up where you left off in caring for your beautiful daughter... For she is the light of their lives and she will continue to grow and achieve so much all because of the wonderful start you gave her... You are with your Dad again and the bright light from above between you both will eventually brighten the rest of your families lives... You will not be forgotten by so many, as your kindness, loyalty and determination has affected us in such a way that I don't think you ever fully understood... Until we meet again sweetheart....

“ My loving sister,

words will never be able to express the love and respect I have for you. I've always admired your strength and all of my school papers growing up about who my hero was or who the strongest person I knew was & it was always you. No one is stronger than you or more determined. You've brought so much good into this world, even literally by bringing a little blessing named Delaney. No matter what we all said or doctors advised, you knew what you wanted and nothing would change your mind. You brought a beautiful baby girl into the world and I am eternally grateful to you as I'm sure others are as well. Delaney was brought into the world for a reason. she brings happiness and joy to everyone she is around and she is here to comfort us during good and bad times and most of all to help us cope with not having you. We would never survive without some part of you here and she is and always will be the closest thing we have to you. She looks & acts like you and I am so proud to call her my niece. You've taught her all she knows because you've always had the patience and the strength to raise her and explain everything she's ever wondered about. She is the center of my life and I promise she will never miss out on any opportunity in her life. She will always have support and love from everyone and she will always be reminded how wonderful her mother is. One day when she is older, her school papers will be about you too. You're inspiring to everyone who knows you & even the ones who only know of you and even though you were taken too soon and suffered more than anyone should ever have to, you achieved your biggest goal which was having your beautiful, bubbly, outgoing, absolutely perfect daughter. You will always live inside of her just as she lived inside of you. I know dad has you beside him now and I know he is so excited to be with you again. We will be looking for your dimes (hopefully dollars one day) and waiting for any signs to show your presence with us. We will always be sisters and I will always have a special place in my heart for you. I love you so much and I won't say goodbye, I will see you later.

P.S. enjoy being the only child up there with dad before I come along and ruin your life like I did the first time. just kidding :)

“ April you will always be in our hearts.. i loved you from the first time you walked into our lives.. I could see from that day that you would be my daughter-in-law. And you did become not just a daughter-in-law but a daughter to Donnie and I.. we have had a lot of wonderful times together.a lot of laughs and a lot of crying to.i would not trade one min of our time together. You are very special to all of us. I thank God for you and Delaney.I know heaven has one more special angel. you will be missed.I will see you in Delaney's eyes when ever she is with us..God bless you April i will see you again.Now go dance with your dad and watch over your baby girl

“ April is one of the truest friends I have had. I will forever remember her. She kept strong through everything she went through and fought right to the very end. I am happy that she is no longer in pain and once again is in full health, but sad to see such a beautiful wonderful person leave this world so early.

To her family: I am sorry for your loss, I hope you can find peace and comfort soon in knowing she is at peace now. If there is anything I can do please let me know.

You all are in my thoughts and prayers. Love, Susan Martin “ Ms. Goins: I was so glad I had the chance of meeting you and April. So sorry it had to be under the circumstances at Hospice of Queen Anne's, but April's will to live and her love for her daughter was something that everyone needed to see. I enjoyed visiting with her and when I gave April the Teddy Bear last week from our church, she smiled and wanted to say thank you so bad. She is surely in heaven with our Good Lord and is looking down taking care of everyone else. May God give you the strength and love to get through this difficult time. Blessings to you and your family. Lynda Palmatary, Centreville.

“ Kim, Terra, Glenn & Delaney,
I am so sorry for the loss of our dear April.
She was a kind, brave, sweet and beautiful girl. She will be missed and never forgotten.
She is with her father and loved ones in heaven now. They will take care of her forever. She will always stay in our hearts. Our prayers and thoughts are with you all now.
