

Aylett O. Lewis

October 30, 1919 - July 17, 2015

It is with saddened hearts that the family of Aylett Oliver Lewis announces her passing at the age of 95. She was a dedicated daughter, wife, mother, and teacher. She lived a long and full life, and leaves behind a legacy of elegance and strength.

A gentle and proud native Virginian, our family moved to Indiana, Illinois, and eventually to Short Hills, NJ, where she began teaching Home Economics at Millburn Jr. High School. The inspiration, influence and guidance she gave all of her students is one of her greatest and most far-reaching legacies.

Mother retired from teaching in 1982 and joined Dad in retirement. They made their permanent home on the Eastern Shore of Maryland and enjoyed traveling in their motorhome.

Mom had a great sense of humor, a love of laughter, and an appreciation of a good joke. She was active with her church and was devoted in her faith.

Aylett joins her husband, George H. Lewis, Jr., in heaven. She joins two of her sons, Michael and George, and her brother, Jim, there as well.

Those left behind include her son, Raine Lewis (wife, Jan) of Trappe, MD; daughters Macon Basinger (husband, Ed) of Sneads Ferry, NC and Sarah Tozier (husband, Bill) of Port Angeles, WA; daughter-in-law Pat Lewis (widow of son, George) of Newburgh, NY. Eight grandchildren and five great-grandchildren will miss her as well. She is also survived by her sister, Mary Lee Culver of Dedham, MA.

"What we have done for ourselves alone dies with us; what we have done for others and the world remains and is immortal." —Albert Pike

In lieu of flowers, the family suggests contributions be made to the Wounded Warrior Project, an organization dear to our mother's heart: www.woundedwarriorproject.org, or by mail, 4899 Belfort Road, Suite 300, Jacksonville, Florida 32256

A celebration of Aylett's life will be held on August 29, 2015, at 11 a.m. at the Presbyterian Church of Easton. Burial will be private.

“ I knew Aylett from church activities. She was a member of the Naomi Bible Study Circle and was a dedicated member for many years. She was a wonderful lady who always had a smile on her face and carried herself with grace. We need more people like Aylett. We miss her already. May she rest in the hands of God.
