“ I don't really have a specific memory to share. I just wanted to thank you Barbara for being the good person you were and not looking down on me in my times of alcoholic trouble. I have since found God and have been sober since January 5th, 2008 and I know that would make you proud. I've read about your church background upbringing and I think you lost a little of that along the way with cards you were dealt in life. I hope you've found a blessed place in heaven and may your soul rest in peace. Much Love-Russ Thompson
