“ Dear Chuck, Mary Ann, Mike, Maggie, Julie, Kathy, Pat, Joe and Beth,

So so sorry to hear of your mothers death. It is so difficult to loose a mother. I always remember your mother for her strength. She went back to work and took care of all of you after your fathers death. Now they are reunited in Heaven. My thoughts and prayes are with all of you.

Love,

“ There are two wonderful people who live in Florida that wanted to sat this. When Mom reaches the Gates of Heaven, God will be there. As she enters, God will say, "Welcome Barbara", she'll look back over her shoulder and reply to us all, "what else could he say".

“Granny, you accepted me as your grandchild since the first day I became a member of your beautiful family. I will always see your gorgeous face and hear your wonderful laugh in my mind. I cherish the words you spoke to me and will never forget how you gleamed when you saw Caelynn. I didn't know Christmas Eve was our last visit but I will always keep the moment fresh in my mind. Thank you for your daughter Kathy because she has been the greatest blessing in my life! I love you always and forever and will never let you go.
