

Barbara Bandy Hough

July 29, 2026

Barbara Bandy Hough of Easton MD daughter of Capt. Jack Bandy, USN (Ret.) and Dorothy Zimmerman passed away peacefully on July 29, 2026. Barbara has lived in Easton since 1980 and was married to William W. Hough for over 69 years. Barbara and Bill raised four children: twin sons, Bill and John; daughter, Laure Anne; and son, James Campbell. Their daughter Laure Anne passed away in 1967 at the age of five, and their son John, who was living in New England, passed away earlier this year. Their son Bill Hough Jr. lives nearby, while their youngest son, James Campbell, resides in Colorado. Barbara is also survived by two granddaughters, Carly and Bridgette, both of California.

Many fortunate folks in the Sailing Club of the Chesapeake and Annapolis Yacht Club will remember Barbara who belonged to these organizations for many years. Barbara and Bill sailed thousands of miles with family and friends, many with her at the helm.

Barbara was very proud of her time as an airline hostess at Capital Airline just prior to merging with United Airlines. She and Bill met after church at her grandmother's home, beginning a lifelong love story spanning nearly seven decades.

A memorial service and reception are being planned for this fall to celebrate the wonderful life of Barbara as a mother, of course, and as a professional artist and member of the WORKING ARTIST FORUM. Barbara's signed paintings adorn many walls. Her celebration will be a chance to give all of Barbara's friend and admirers a chance to celebrate the remarkable woman who always wanted to paint clouds better.

Good luck BARB!
