

Barbara Jean Lewis

July 13, 1943 - September 26, 2012

Barbara Jean Fowler Greene Lewis of Colonial Beach, VA died on September 26, 2012. She was 69.

Born in Washington, DC on July 13, 1943, she was the daughter of Clarence and Frances Simpson Fowler. She was survived by a brother, Stephen Fowler of Baltimore, MD.

Barbara was employed by Ben Franklin in Colonial Beach until it closed its doors. She then took a job for Food Lion. She left Food Lion for a short period of time while her and husband James Greene traveled to Florida. Upon her return to VA., She went back to work at Food Lion until her retirement in 1995.

Barbara enjoyed crocheting, needle work & scrapbooking. She was also known for her green thumb, growing beautiful flowers. These were enjoyed by everyone including the many hummingbirds that she was fond of watching. Barbara known lovingly as Bobby, Nan or Grandma loved family events and was famous for her potato salad. Though she might complain about having to provide this delicious dish for all the gathering she always made extra for the host to enjoy later.

Ms. Lewis is survived by her children: Russell D. Greene of Florida, Michael

S. Greene of Colonial Beach, VA, and Bonnie S. Reamy of Grasonville, MD, Debra A Windsor of Baltimore, Md. Martha V. Johnson of Glen Bernie, MD, and Shirley L. Zimmerman of Linthicum, MD. In addition Barbara was survived by many grandchildren and great grandchildren from both the Greene family and the Lewis family.

All services will be private.
