“ *Dear Maule Family,
Bobbie was a special lady in many ways! When I was young, my sister and I cleaned her house (and she was a tough task master!). Later, when she lived in the apartment off the main house, I would go to visit her and do little things for her. Sometimes they seemed silly to me, but they were important to her. She didn't actually go to church much that I remember, but she always called me to remind me to make some salad dressing or chocolate fudge for the dinners. How could I turn down a personal request from her? At the same time, she always wanted to know how my family was AND would ask for each person by name AND remember details about them! I was amazed that she could keep a world outside of her 4 walls straight. The last time I visited her with an old friend of hers (Bonnie Shelton Savage) she still knew us! Our prayers and condolences to your family!*
