“ Barbara worked with my mother, Rose Sparks, so many years ago, and Mom always thought Barbara was a wonderful caring nurse. I know they had many laughing times at work, and later when I became a nurse. I always had so much respect with her work with Hospice. She was a fine woman and a compassionate nurse. My prayers go out to her family, as I know you will miss her always. Sincerely, Marge Frybarger

“ I remember meeting Barbara when she had called my office about a stray pigeon that had taken up residence on the roof of her garage. She did not mind the pigeon, however they were hosting a party that was being held in the garage and there was much concern about the possibility of the pigeon on the food. ;) Well, professionally, I could not do anything for her but on my own time, my husband and I went over and got the pigeon. Little did I know that this would start a wonderful friendship. After my retirement, Barbara McGlinn ended up being my very 1st client as a pet sitter. She and Mr. Tom owned Boo, a beautiful Black Lab and I had the privilege of watching him on many occasions. I always said she trained me well. We became good friends and although I did not see her as often as I wanted, she always sent cards for Birthdays Holidays as well as Thank You notes for small gifts that were sent. In this day and age, that is a dieing courtesy. I loved her cards. You were a Grand and Tough Lady Mrs. McGlinn and will be so missed. No more pain or worry. Rest in peace and prayers for Mr Tom and family.
