

Barbara Ann Paul

July 30, 1932 - January 5, 2018

Barbara Ann Paul of Chestertown, MD, passed away on Friday, January 5, 2018, at Autumn Lake Healthcare in Chestertown. She was 85. She was born on July 30, 1932, in PA.

Mrs. Paul worked for ten years as Manager for Gimbals in Long Island, New York. In December 1990, she married Richard Paul. She was affectionately known as “Rosie the Riveter” at Northrop Grumman as they worked in the construction division and riveting operations. Mrs. Paul was the only female in the major assembly aircraft department at Northrop and Grumman at that time.

Mrs. Paul enjoyed sewing and boating with her husband.

In addition to her husband, she is survived by a daughter, Cynthia Hannon of Smithtown, Long Island, New York, and a brother, John Greene of North Carolina.

A memorial service will be held on Wednesday, January 10, 2018, at 2 p.m. at Wesley Hall, Heron Point, in Chestertown.
