“ I will dearly miss my great aunt Bobbi lou. She would come and sit with my grandmother (her sister) and have tea. I would sit there and join them a lot growing up and they would tell story's. Such as the time they skiped school while living in NJ and made chocolate cake and left the mess in the kitchen. The inside joke between the two was always funny. My granny (Jeanne Davis) always would say I am the oldest and there for I am the boss and aunt Bobbi lou would say "now Jeanne you can't hold both titles your the oldest so there for I am the boss". She always put a smile on my face with that and I would always use that on my granny and tell her remember your the oldest aunt Bobbi lou is the boss so what she says goes. Granny would just shake her head and say ok. Aunt Bobbi lou when I was younger and loved cooking would give me new recipes and sometimes have me cook for her (sugar free of course) all the sugar would be in the kiss on my cheek after she tried it and loved it. Unfortunately I will be unable to attend the services due to a family emergency on my other half side which has required us to go to NC. I will be there in spirt and will miss you all and miss her with a great deal. I loved her as if she was my own grandmother. My deepest sympathy to the family and friends. I shall light a candle to a wonderful life well lived. Love you aunt Bobbi lou you will be missed

“ Just heard about my beautiful cousin Bobbie Lou and her passing this evening. She was the very heart of kindness and love for the "Turner Reunion" held each year at Camp Mardella. Her smile would light up a room and the love she had in her heart towards all is unsurpassed. Her entire family is in shock and her boys are the work and caring of this incredible woman. Our hearts are with you and our arms surround you.
