

Barry Sargent Weyburn

October 1, 1944 - January 27, 2022

Barry Weyburn died of mysterious complications in her home in Rock Hall on the evening of January 27th, 2022, surrounded by loved ones.

Barry spent most of her childhood in Connecticut, having wild adventures with her cousins. She then studied art at Boston University for two years before running off to Mexico with an art model. After a year hitchhiking across Africa and another year living in northern India, she returned to the U.S., worked at the Library of Congress, and married her cousin's husband, David Post. Together they built cement boats and sailed to far-off places, but returned to Massachusetts to build a cabin in the woods and become parents.

For some years they worked together at a post-and-beam company, Barry as a draftsman and David building houses, though they spent their free time building schooners, and managed a year-long sailing adventure with their five-year-old daughter, Julie, down to the Bahamas and back.

When the ice and snow of Massachusetts became too much for them, they sold their house and resumed life onboard, ending up in the Chesapeake Bay. They fell in love with Rock Hall where David started a boat-building company and Barry worked at Breese Sailmakers.

She is happy to join her husband in the Great Beyond, and is survived by her daughter Julie, her dog Tucker, and Possum the cat.

Tribute Wall

“ Barry Sargent Weyburn

October 26, 2023 at 06:42 PM

“ Barry Sargent Weyburn

January 28, 2023 at 12:44 PM

“ Barry Sargent Weyburn

January 28, 2023 at 08:03 AM

“ So sad to hear that you are gone. I enjoyed many years working for your Mom and then you on the Madison House books. Barry was such a wonderful person and I am forever grateful to have met her. Bon Voyage my friend!

Pat Dawson - February 28, 2022 at 04:47 PM

“ I was devastated to learn of Barry's passing as would have been DeDe if he were still alive. Barry was his favorite and mine also. Such a loving, caring and most interesting person. She will be greatly missed. My condolences to Julie and other family members including her sister-in-law, stepchildren and Ann Malloy. Jean Richards

jean Richards - February 06, 2022 at 04:36 PM

AM

Thank you, Jean, she was easily a favorite, she was also very fond of you and DeDe. Ann Malloy

ann malloy - February 06, 2022 at 07:41 PM

GY

“ Barry and Dave were great neighbors. I loved Barry's beautiful flowers that she faithfully tended to .Every Christmas she would hand deliver us a delicious tin of cookies. Barry watched our kids grow up and always asked how they were doing . I will miss Barry's smiling face and zest for life.

Gail and Bobby Yerkie

Gail Yerkie - February 03, 2022 at 07:50 PM

AM

“ I met Barry over 50 years ago at the Library of Congress, we became instant friends, and remained so until her "mysterious" death. She was a wonderful woman with a great sense of humor, and many stories to tell. She taught me a lot about life, especially taking chances, which we did on many occasions. I loved her dearly, and will miss her forever. Ann Malloy

ann malloy - February 01, 2022 at 03:52 PM

Thank you for writing this!

Julie Post - February 03, 2022 at 07:31 AM

LS

“ Liz Smith lit a candle in memory of Barry Sargent Weyburn

Liz Smith - February 01, 2022 at 07:10 AM

TS

“ She was one of my favorite patients while I worked at the Shore Regional Lab. I told her about my new job and she said:

“Oh my you’re working across the bridge? That’s the big city! We will have to have coffee and or tea on a rooftop with our pinky’s up! We’re fancy now! “

I personally wrote her a card after I left the lab to thank her for the memories we made and the laughs we shared. She was wonderful!

Comfort, peace, love and light is being sent to the family and friends and to everyone who knew and loved her ☐

Tiffany Scott - January 28, 2022 at 08:30 PM

MU

“ Marie Usilton lit a candle in memory of Barry Sargent Weyburn

Marie Usilton - January 28, 2022 at 07:21 PM