

Barry Britton Schomborg

March 24, 2008

Barry Britton Schomborg died on Monday, March 24, 2008 at his home in Chester, MD. He was 60.

Born in Baltimore, MD, he was raised by loving and adoptive parents, Emil and Helen Schomborg and uncle, Ken Schomborg in Wittman, MD. After graduating from St. Michaels High School, he served in the U.S. Navy. His work as well as his home was dedicated to a love for the seafood and marine industry. His social friendliness eventually drew him to the shores of Kent Island.

A loving and caring father, Mr. Schomborg is survived by two daughters, Nichole and Allison Schomborg of Easton; and lifelong friends, David and Brenda Woolman of Charleston, SC.

Memorial services will be held at a later date.

Arrangements are by Fellows, Helfenbein and Newnam Funeral Home, P.A., Easton, MD.
