“ It was a privilege and blessing to have Bea as a friend and a neighbor. She was generous, hospitable, and funny. It was truly an inspiration to see her determination in overcoming handicaps. Mom and I enjoyed her company on many walks around the neighborhood and leisurely chats on the back deck afterwards. Despite her physical limitations, she made dinner for us a number of times--homemade chicken soup, spaghetti, beef stew. Bea was an overcomer, and I trust that, now she is in the presence of her Savior, all the pain and sorrows she endured are swallowed up in victory and joy. She ran a good race! We will miss her.

I want to add that she was the favorite neighbor of Mom's dog Jak-- Bea always had bacon-flavored "Beggin's" for him... and sometimes real bacon. No wonder he always tugged on his leash when he walked past her driveway!

*Much love to the family,

“ Grandmom is in my heart for all time. She was a wonderful person. It makes me smile to think of my childhood visits, to think of playing outside her house, and drinking her tea. She made the best tea. It was so good that I'd drink it until my stomach hurt. One thing I'll never forget is how welcoming she was when we'd visit. I wish I had visited more. I love and miss her. My thoughts and prayers go out to the rest of my family at this difficult time.
