“ Uncle Paul was wonderful, he was a pillar of what you wanted to be when you grew up, respected, honorable, knowledgeable from life experience. He always had a wonderful take on life. How hard it was and to always keep going. And most importantly how he could make you laugh. Every word would leave you hanging for more. I never understood how he could have such a strong voice and yet so soft. He is always in my heart and look forward to seeing him again!! Bless you and I Love You!! 🥰

“ I can still hear that big deep voice and laugh. You could never miss it. I actually ran into him at Lowes after years of not seeing him and I knew it was him behind me before I even turned around ❤️

“ Uncle Paul was my favorite person. As a little girl it was puppy love. I thought he was handsome. I loved the times our families would get together for games, visits, and trips. My Uncle Paul loved me. He told me he was proud of me. I will miss him so much. I love you Uncle Paul.
