

Bertha Madeline Harich

August 31, 1936 - March 30, 2025

Bertha Madeline Harich, 88, of Easton, Maryland, passed away peacefully on March 30, 2025, surrounded by the love of her family. She was the devoted wife of Philip R. Harich. Together, they shared an extraordinary 71 years of marriage, having wed on June 20, 1953, in Forestville, Maryland.

Born on August 31, 1936, in Washington, D.C., Bertha was the daughter of the late Lloyd Poole and Mary (Nalley) Poole. She worked as a beautician, a role through which she shared her creativity and warm spirit with many in her community.

Bertha lived a vibrant and fulfilling life centered around family, faith, and simple joys. She had a deep love for the outdoors and cherished activities such as skiing, boating, and camping. She found happiness in dancing, gardening, sewing, and gathering with family and friends. Her greatest pride and joy came from caring for her family—especially her grandchildren—and she never missed a chance to babysit or offer support to those she loved. A lifelong animal lover, Bertha had a special fondness for Yorkies, whose loyalty and energy matched her own kind and nurturing heart.

Bertha is survived by her loving husband, Philip; her daughter, Vickie Haller; and three sisters. She leaves behind a legacy of love through her grandchildren: Heather Canter (Chris), Micki Sorrell (Joe), Angie Payne, and Danny Harich; her great-grandchildren: Ryan, Brianna, Julie, Wesley, Katelyn, Hailey, and Mason; and three great-great-grandchildren.

She was preceded in death by her parents; beloved son, Philip Harich; her son-in-law, David Haller; and her brothers and sisters. Though deeply missed, Bertha's memory will live on in the hearts of all who knew and loved her.

In keeping with her wishes, services will be private.
