“ I did not have the chance to meet this wonderful lady in person when I welcomed he husband Bill, sisters in law Kathryn and Patricia and Mary in Frosolone, Italy. All I want to say is, 'Beth, bathe yourself forever in the blessed vision and presence of our Lord!'

“ Bethann and I were very close friends in grade school (St. John Baptist de la Salle) and in high school (Elizabeth Seton). I have so many fun memories when we were just girls. We fell out of touch after she got married and I moved to Baltimore to finish college. I regret that. But it is quite wonderful to see she had a beautiful, full life (just not nearly long enough) with such a big, wonderful family. When I would babysit my sister's children, Beth always changed the diapers! She was meant to be a mom even way back then. Sending sincere sympathy to Billy and all the family.
