What a shock this way to her family and friends. Carolyn was loved by so many people and surely could brighten up a room. Just chatted with her recently and she never forgot anyone. Always had that smile and love on her face. Our prayers and many blessings are with you at this time. We always ask "why", but only our Good Lord can answer that question. May the love of God and your friends help you make it through this very difficult time. God Bless, Gene and Lynda Palmatary, Centreville.

We used to have the most fantastic walks into town together, laughing and carrying on all the way. I found her on facebook shortly after she lost her husband and we talked a lot about their life together. She always had a minute to comment on my page and like my pics. “ My heart aches ever since I heard about my dear childhood friend/little sister's death. We had so much fun playing in our old wharf neighborhood. You looking at me with that patch on your eye regretting having to wear it in the hot summer days. Getting upset and wanting to tear it off. We put on plays, twirled our batons in parades, played hairdresser, had sleep overs, told stories and laughed at her funny songs and sayings. We teased one another and loved every minute of it. I'm so grateful to have had such a loving, caring, fantastic, fun friend that I will have cherished memories forever. May you keep everyone entertained in heaven, have fun laughing with your loved ones Carolyn. Please tell your Dad again, I'm not the janitors daughter. Rest my sweet friend. I will miss you so.
