February 21, 1933 - October 13, 2018

Betty Thompson Brown of Centreville, MD, died on October 13, 2018, at Autumn Lake Healthcare in Chestertown, MD. She was 85.

She was born on February 21, 1933, the daughter of the late James and Mary Cannon Thompson. She graduated from Centreville High School and married Jabez Brown in 1953.

Mrs. Brown worked for The Honorable Judge Keating for three years. She then worked with Centreville National Bank where she was known for her meticulous bookkeeping skills. She would later fill in for legal bookkeepers and secretaries on Lawyers Row in Centreville as needed. She also served as a Notary. Above all, Mrs. Brown was a wife, mother, grandmother, and great-grandmother, and was most proud of her family.

Mrs. Brown was an excellent cook and passed many of her favorite recipes down to her daughter and granddaughters. She was happiest spending time with her grandchildren and great-grandchildren and enjoyed her Saturday lunches with her sisters and nieces.

Her husband, the late Jabez Brown, predeceased her in 1996. She is survived by three children, Jabez F. Brown, Jr., Mary Brown and Phillip Quay, and Phillip Brown all of Centreville; a sister, Bertha Hebel of Dagsboro, DE,; six grandchildren Brian and Kelly Brown, Kimberly and Jason King, Nicole Brown and Jeremy Davis, Jay Brown, Will Brown, and PJ Quay; and two great-grandchildren, Brian Brown, Jr., and Isley King, all of Centreville.

To the family: What a wonderful lady that has left our community. It was always a pleasure to chat with Ms. Betty and what wonderful memories we have of her when she visited her brother in the nursing home while daddy was there. We had many laughs and good times. Our prayers and blessings are with you at this time and always hold her close to your heart. God Bless. Gene and Lynda Palmatary
