

Betty Louise Clevenger

October 28, 1927 - June 17, 2021

Betty Louise Middleton Clevenger passed away on June 17 at the home of her daughter, Sharon. Betty was 93.

Born on October 28, 1927, in Centreville, Maryland, the daughter of the late Miriam Lavina Jones and the late James Bart Middleton, Betty grew up in Centreville, Maryland, attending Centreville Elementary and Centreville High School, graduating in June of 1945. Betty married the love of her life, the late Marlin Saddler Clevenger. Marlin and Betty were married July 19, 1947, and had three children, Sharon Louise Cropper, Vicki Lynn Perry, and Richard Emory Clevenger (Lynn); two grandchildren, Tiffany Lynn Perry Brown (JB) and Amanda Lynn Clevenger; and two great-grandchildren, Michael Perry and Jamie Brown.

Marlin passed away January 12, 2000.

Betty worked as a telephone operator for the C&P Telephone Company when she was out of high school and in the beginning of their marriage. She left employment to raise her children and was employed in 1957 at the Grasonville Post Office, becoming Postmaster in 1970. She retired from the U.S. Postal Service in 1980 after 30 years of service.

Betty was active in her community holding offices in the Sisters of Knights of Pythias in the Grasonville Temple, as well as Past Grand Chief for the State of Maryland Lodge of the Sisters of the Knights of Pythias. She was a Past President of the Ladies Auxiliary of VFW Post 7464, and Past President of the Southern Police Institute Alumni Association. Betty served as Treasurer of the Immanuel United Methodist Church in Grasonville and the Treasurer of VFW Post 7464 in Grasonville, Maryland.

Betty is survived by her brothers and sisters, Myrtle Crouse, Blanche Dashiells, George (Toby) Middleton and Richard Middleton. She is preceded in death by two brothers and two sisters, James Middleton, Shirley Sparks, Robert Middleton and Sharon Christine Middleton. Betty's mother and baby sister, Sharon, were lost in a house fire when Betty was a teenager. As the oldest of nine, she became the go-to person for her siblings, always helping where she could.

After retirement, she and Marlin danced under the moonlight to the Jack Morgan Orchestra. Due to their friendship with the bandleader, Jack Morgan, and their love for big band music, they were able to travel and cruise to many beautiful locations. She loved her children, grandchildren and great-grandchildren, and was always showing her love and support of them.

In lieu of flowers, Betty's family asks that you POAK (Pass On A Kindness).

A funeral service will be held at 3 pm on Wednesday, June 23, at the Fellows, Helfenbein & Newnam Funeral Home, PA in Centreville, MD, where friends and family may visit beginning at 1 pm. Burial will follow at Woodlawn Memorial Park, Easton, MD.

“ Sharon, Vicki and Ricky and families— I am so so sorry to hear about your sweet Mom. She was so precious and loved by my Mom (Mickey Myers) and my Daddy(Emil Myers) . The four of them did so much together as the men were in the State Police and then a few times on a cruise together. I can still see Daddy and your Dad laughing and calling each other,” You Welp” or “ You Gyp”. The 2 wives would laugh and laugh at them. They had so much fun. God bless you as you miss her so much . I pray you are comforted by Jesus knowing they are both with Him and together. 💕💕

“ Ms. Betty was such a loving, warm & compassionate person who placed her family first. She is now at peace with her husband, Marlin, who was epitomized as one of Maryland's Finest! On behalf of the family of Paul W. Kelley, we send our love and prayers to a wonderful family, whom I have grown to love as my family. God only takes the Best!
