What a great friend I have lost. Have many wonderful memories of Betty Lou in Red Hatters Club and the love for others. She loved people and could never do enough for the young and the old. She will be missed tremendously and her love for this County was way up in the clouds. Prayers to her family and friends. Betty Lou you surely were welcomed with opened arms by God in heaven. RIP and you will never be forgotten. God bless dear friend. Lynda Palmatary, Centreville.
