

Betty Lee Hewitt

March 31, 2000

Betty Lee Hewitt, 75, of Barclay, MD, formally of Worton, MD, died on March 31, 2000, as a result of cancer.

Born in Massachusetts, she was the daughter of the late Blanche Morse. She spent all of her formative years in Hillsboro, MD, and graduated from Tri County High School. During her working career, she worked on the assembly line at Technitrol Company in Greensboro, MD.

She married Oliver Hewitt in 1943, moved to Worton, MD, and together they raised a family of four. She was a devoted wife and mother. She was family-orientated as her life evolved around her family. She particularly enjoyed being with her children and grandchildren. Mrs. Hewitt enjoyed playing bingo and traveling throughout the county going to yard sales. She is a member of the Solid Rock Church in Hazletville, DE.

She was preceded in death by her husband of 54 years, Oliver Earl Hewitt, who died in November of 1997, and a beloved granddaughter, Andrea Loatman, who died in 1999.

Surviving Mrs. Hewitt are her son John Russell "Rusty" Hewitt and his wife Janet of Barclay with whom she resided; a daughter, Janet Lee Kibler and her husband Donald of Goldsboro, MD; eight grandchildren; and six great-grandchildren.

Services will be held on Thursday, April 6, 2000, from the Fellows, Helfenbein and Newnam Funeral Home, P.A., 130 Speer Road, Chestertown, at 12 p.m. A viewing will be held from 11 a.m. till noon on Thursday. Burial will be in Church Hill Cemetery.

In lieu of flowers, the family suggests memorial contributions be made to Queen Anne's County Hospice Foundation, 300 Del Rhodes Avenue, Queenstown, MD 21658-1365.
