

Betty Louise Meyr

November 13, 1932 - March 4, 2024

Betty Louise Meyr, a resilient and strong-minded matriarch, left us on March 4, 2024, at the age of 91. She was born on November 13, 1932, and was the beloved wife of the late Herman Meyr. Betty was the devoted mother of Thomas Meyr and the late Ronald Meyr and Kurt Meyr. She was also the cherished grandmother of Samantha, Ronnie, and Michelle Meyr.

Betty's life was marked by her unwavering dedication to her family and her remarkable achievements in the business world. As a businesswoman, she owned and successfully operated her own construction company, Island Builder Services, for over 30 years. Betty's determination and leadership skills were evident in the success of her company, which stood as a testament to her tenacity and hard work.

In addition to her professional accomplishments, Betty found joy in her family. She reveled in the role of a devoted wife and mother, and her love and guidance were a source of strength for her family. Betty's family trips to Lancaster, PA, were a cherished tradition, creating lasting memories that will be held dear by those who had the privilege of sharing those moments with her.

Betty Meyr's life was also touched by the companionship of her beloved St. Bernard, Gretel, who predeceased her. The bond between Betty and Gretel was a testament to her compassionate and caring nature, extending her love not only to her human family but also to her furry companion.

Betty Louise Meyr will be remembered for her indomitable spirit, business acumen, and the love she shared with her family.
