“ There are so many things I loved about you. We had our good and bad! But the best thing was that you were always there to listen to what I had to say. Every time I went out you would let me come home and tell you everything I did before you went back to sleep. I have missed you for a few years but am happy you are in peace now. I will talk to you often and I'm sure you will hear me, and be listening.

I love you Jacque

“ My fondest memory was when we went to Atlantic City when we were kids. Mom use to put me in one of the outside sinks at the Norristown Guest house, to wash the sand off me, before going in side to our rooms.
I love you Mom!
