“ Betty always had a smile on her face and a kind word on her lips. She was an amazingly kindhearted person, who loved her family.

“Our death is not an end if we can live on in our children and the younger generation. For they are us, our bodies are only wilted leaves on the tree of life.”

- Albert Einstein

Betty's spirit will live on for generations to come.

For all of us who will miss Betty, the Bible says -

"The Lord is close to the brokenhearted and saves those who are crushed in spirit"

- Psalm 34:18

“ To the Family: I am truly sorry about your family's loss, and I want to offer my condolences. Even though death is a part of life, its not always easy for us to handle and we may sometimes find it difficult to endure, but Gods Word the Bible gives us heartwarming comfort during our times of distress, one scripture in particular that gives much needed comfort is found at Revelation 21:3,4 which in part reads: "And God himself will be with them. And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away." Your family will be in my prayers, my sincere condolences.

“ To the entire Miller family, I want to express my heartfelt sympathy. As many have already shared, Betty always had a smile on her face and immediately made you feel like you've known each other for years. I recall feeling that way as a teenager meeting her for the first time...everyone was welcome in her home. She loved to talk about her life in Baltimore, her family and grandchildren. I know how proud she was, is and always will be as she watches over all of you in spirit. Betty, may you rest in peace - you are loved and missed by so many.

My heart aches upon hearing of her passing. I will always remember how she would drive us anywhere we wanted to go, and cruzing the Tastee Freeze was so much fun with her. “ Mrs. Betty, Thank you for being in my life. I spent a lot of time at your house years ago, and you always treated me with open arms. I loved listening to your stories and your laughter. You raised three amazing children whom I am happy to call friends. It was always a pleasure to see you make Mr. Al blush at a comment you would make! I have always admired how close knit your family is. That is a testament to you! Again, thank you for just being you, and welcoming me into your family- oh, and introducing me to Chinese food (which I now love). I will do what I can to watch over your family here on Earth while you watch over them in your angelic form. God bless your soul.

“ We would like to express our deepest sympathies to Al, Bob, Beatrice, Carl, Leslie and Ed, our brothers and sisters –in- law and to all of our nieces, and nephews, their spouses and their children. I know that she is somewhere in a good place smiling down on all of you.

Jean remembered a time when she and her brother Bob, in their early teens, had a snake collection in the basement of the house. Somehow, a small garter snake managed to get out of his cage and could not be found. They searched the entire house through but could not find that snake so they reasoned that it probably found its way to the outside.

Well that night when the girls went to their room, Betty, as she was ready to get into bed, threw back the covers and was shocked right out of her socks when she spied that lost snake right in the middle of her bed!

Well, Jean said that Betty let out a holler so loud that it probably woke most of their neighbors. Then, while jumping up and down, she yelled at Jean, ” GET THAT, X@ !! SNAKE OUT OF MY BED!!” Jean, who was laughing hysterically, grabbed the snake and put him back in his pen. For a long time after, Betty was very timid when pulling back her bed covers.

We loved our sister dearly,

Bob and Jean Smith

“ Dearest Al, Alison, Colleen, Albert, Melanee, Ed, grandchildren and family -- Our hearts, love and prayers are with you at this most difficult time. Betty was one in a million and always had a smile for everyone, was a great friend, and above all adored her family. That was evident to all that knew her. There are so many great memories spent with your family over the years, and we count ourselves lucky to have known and admired her. While she is no longer here with us, her memory and spirit lives on in each of you, and we know she is not far away...always watching over you. -- Marie and Pete Martinez

“ Colleen, Jamie, and all the Miller Family, I am so sad to learn of your loss. I remember your mother/grandmother so fondly from meeting her when our girls were in preschool together and she always had a smile on her face and a laugh to share. There is nothing quite so special as the mother/daughter/granddaughter connection and I hope you feel embraced by the love of your family and friends during this very sad time. God bless you all....
