

Betty A. Schwan

December 27, 1945 - July 15, 2014

Betty Ann Schwan died on July 15, 2014, at her home in Stevensville, MD. She was 68.

Born on December 27, 1945 in Washington, DC, to James I. and Betty R. Horne, she grew up in the District, then Adelphi, and finally College Park. Betty Ann graduated from High Point High School in Beltsville and studied at the University of Maryland, College Park, where she met Charles F. Schwan III. They married at the University of Maryland University Chapel on June 4, 1966. They resided in Adelphi, Lanham, and Greenbelt before retiring to Kent Island, MD.

In addition to her husband and mother, she is survived by her daughter, Julie Salay and her husband Jeffrey of Stevensville; daughter Debbie Tascher and her husband Brian of Raleigh, NC; son, Michael Schwan and his wife Cristina of Bethesda; son, Greg Schwan and his wife Leslie of New York; sisters Carol Kemerer and Janet DiGuiseppe of Crofton; and six grandchildren, Christopher, Alexa, Matthew, Bryce, Ella, and Haylee.

A passionate mother, Betty Ann loved spending time with her family and grandchildren, playing with her Golden Retrievers, Sandy and Brady; and relaxing by her pool. She also loved going to Myrtle Beach and stopping along the way (in both directions) at Parker's BBQ. She shone brightest as the hostess of many Christmas, Thanksgiving, and Easter gatherings. Nothing pleased her more than seeing a child or grandchild come through the front door.

A kidney dialysis patient for the final years of her life, the family would like to thank the dialysis staffs at Fresenius, DaVita, and the Anne Arundel Medical Center.

Services will be held on Wednesday, July 23, 2014, at 11 a.m. at Fellows, Helfenbein & Newnam Funeral Home, P.A. in Chester, MD, with a visitation on Tuesday, July 22, 2014, from 6-8pm.

Interment will be at Broad Creek Cemetery in Stevensville, MD, in the sunniest spot we could find.

“ Mr. Charlie Schwan and family, my sincere condolences to you on the demise of your wife. I know first hand how painful it is when the one you have walked with for some time is no longer there. In time, with the Grace of a Loving God, the healing will begin. Savor the memories you shared and know that Heaven's garden has a new flower. Remembering you in prayer.

“ Our sincere condolences to you, Charlie, and to your family. A sudden loss is so difficult. In life, Betty's charm and lovely smile gave everyone a sense of peace; in her death may you all find the peace she shared with so many. Our prayers are with you and your family during this difficult time.

“ My condolences to the Family. The death of a loved one is the most difficult thing we deal with. I wanted to take this time to express my condolences to you for your loss. May you find comfort from Jehovah God's word the Bible. (Psalms 83:18) The Bible promises: "there is going to be a resurrection of both the righteous and the unrighteous." (Acts 24:15) Jehovah God assures us that our dear dead loved ones will receive a resurrection to a restored beautiful paradise earth. (Isaiah 65:21,22) The Bible also promises: "And the last enemy, death, is to be brought to nothing." (1Corinthians 15:26) Death will be removed from all the earth. Tears of sorrow will vanish. (Revelation 21:4) No one will die from natural causes or weep. These are promises that will soon be a reality. The Bible says: "It is impossible for God to lie." (Hebrews 6:18) May you find comfort from these promises. And may Jehovah God of all comfort be with you. (2Corinthians 1:3,4)

Charlie and family,

Jim and I send our deepest sympathy at this difficult time. Cousin Betty Ann and I knew each other practically since we were born, and though I did not see much of her in later years, I often thought of her and prayed for her.
