“ Betty was working at the Chestertown fertilizer location in the 1950s-1970s. I supervised that location for the Cambridge home office of Kerr McGee. Al Parsons was the local sales person. Betty was always efficient and friendly. I had no contact with her in recent years, but remember her as a friend and great employee. I am sorry for her passing.

“ Ms. Betty was a sweet lady and a dear friend of our family. When we had family gatherings she and her late husband were always there. They were family. She watched myself grow up from a child to an adult and also my children. She will never be forgotten.

Sorry for your loss and prayers to the family. Much love, Betty Jo States Embert & Family
