

Betty G. Stinchcomb

February 3, 2004

Betty G. Stinchcomb of Easton, MD died at Talbot Hospice House on Tuesday, February 3, 2004. She was 61.

Born in Baltimore, Maryland on November 26, 1942, she was the daughter of the late Andrew L. and Louise Schindel Cowley. At an early age she and her family moved to the Pasadena area where she graduated from Glen Burnie High School in 1960. In the early 1970's she moved to the Eastern Shore where she worked for the last ten years in the cafeteria of Ridgely Elementary School, retiring in 2003 due to health reasons.

She was a member of the Humane Society and a former member of Christ Lutheran Church of Pasadena.

Ms Stinchcomb is survived by a daughter, Michele Nagel and her husband Ryan of Trappe; a brother, Andrew L. Cowley, Jr. and his wife Gloria of Queen Anne; a very special friend, Tammy Mathis of Ridgely; and two grand dogs, Chevy and Graham who were a very important part of her life.

Funeral Services will be held at the Fellows, Helfenbein and Newnam Funeral Home, P. A. in Easton, MD on Saturday, February 7, 2004 at 2:00 p.m., where friends may call one hour prior to the service.

Burial will be at Greenmount Cemetery, Hillsboro.

Memorial donations may be made to the Talbot Hospice Foundation, 586 Cynwood Drive, Easton, MD 21601 or to the Scleroderma Foundation, 89 Newbury Street, Suite 201, Danvers, MA 01923.
