

Beverly Ann Cavey

October 29, 1941 - July 8, 2023

Beverly A. Cavey (Taylor), born on October 29, 1941, passed away on July 8, 2023. She was a beloved wife, mother, grandmother, sister, and friend, leaving behind a legacy of love, kindness, and cherished memories.

Beverly's life was a testament to the power of love and commitment. She and her high school sweetheart, Theodore R. Cavey, Sr., embarked on a beautiful journey together, sharing a deep and enduring bond that lasted over six decades. Their love story served as an inspiration to all who knew them.

Throughout her life, Beverly found joy in the simple pleasures and shared them with her loved ones. She had a green thumb and took great pride in working in her yard, transforming it into a sanctuary of beauty and tranquility.

She loved baking with the delightful aroma of freshly baked treats. Her peanut butter fudge and pumpkin rolls became cherished family traditions, eagerly anticipated by all who knew her. Through her creations, she shared her love and warmth with those around her.

The family was at the center of Beverly's heart, and she found immense joy in having her loved ones gathered together, especially during the holidays. Her home became a haven of love, laughter, and cherished memories. The love she poured into her family was reciprocated tenfold, as her loved ones admired and treasured her unwavering devotion.

Beverly's presence brought comfort and joy to the lives of her children: Deborah, Theodore Jr., Brian, and Michael along with their spouses. She was a loving and nurturing mother who guided her children with wisdom, patience, and unconditional love. Her legacy lives on through the values she instilled in them, shaping the compassionate individuals they have become.

As a grandmother, Beverly held a special place in the hearts of her ten grandchildren and fifteen great-grandchildren. She showered them with love, affection, and wisdom, creating cherished memories that will endure for a lifetime. Her legacy will continue to inspire and guide them as they navigate their own life journeys.

Beverly's warm and caring nature extended beyond her immediate family. She had a generous spirit and a genuine interest in the well-being of others. Her acts of kindness and her ability to make everyone feel valued will forever be remembered by those fortunate enough to have crossed her path.

As we bid farewell to Beverly, we find solace in knowing that her spirit will forever live on in the hearts of her family and friends. Her memory will be carried forward through the love, compassion, and grace she shared with the world.

“ Aunt Beverly had the kindest soul and always had a smile on her face. The love she had for her family is something so rarely seen. I will always have fond memories of our telephone conversations and how she bubbled with pride when talking about those she loved. Much love to you all, she will be greatly missed.
