“ Parker,

My dearest loved one, here on earth,

I saw a tear fall down your face.

You didn't see me standing there,

Nor could you feel my soft embrace.

But I was standing next to you,

I know you looked around.

You seemed to wonder what it was

You thought you heard a sound.

Yes my love, it was I,

Who came to check on you.

I saw a tear fall from your eye,

I knew you were feeling blue.

Even though you cannot see me.

Please know that I am near

I am now an angel from above

To brush away your tear.

I know each day you think of me

And many times shed a tear.

But please just close your eyes

And know that I am near.

As I have told you often,

Do not be afraid to cry.

It does relieve the pain

Knowing we had to say goodbye.

One thing is for certain,

Even though life on earth is o'er

I'm still closer to you now

Than ever I was before.

I know you still don't understand

Why I had to leave this earth

God doesn't have any secrets;

It's just all planned from our birth.

Someday when you have joined me

And meet God at His Throne,

It's then you will understand

The questions that have been unknown.

Parker,

I wanted you to have this poem with the hopes that you may find some comfort with the words in it. As for me I will write in time, I'm in such a state over the sudden loss of my dearly beloved nephew.

“ Dear cousin Willie, (Bill)

You called me 3 days before you passed. Mom and I are still crying over your passing. Don't understand why God took you away from the happy life, you so much deserved. We had so many childhood memories. We had alot of good times (don't want to remeber the bad). We grew up in every apartment together like brother and sister. We went to almost every elementry school in Eureka, remeber we would make funny jokes about that. In our 20's I moved to Oregon and you soon followed. We had a cute apartment together. I remeber you getting your first job at a pizza parlor and quickly moved over to the other counter to become a bar tender (that was cute). You turned out to be so inteligent and still had your great sence of humor. If you didn't call me 3 days before your passing I would be so lossed without knowing how you were doing in life. That 3 hour phone call was meant to be. Your 3 hour phone call to Auntie Mary made her very happy too. She's taking your loss just like she lost her son 3 years ago. Parker, I want you to know, Bill and I talked about what a wonderful person you are. You brought alot of joy to his life. He also told me about his sweet step daughter. After things settle, we will talk because I have so many stories to tell you. Your sister Susie has been a sweetheart through this ordeal, she's kept us informed on everything. I pray for you Parker, it brings me and my mom so much peace knowing, how much you loved Bill. I read your entry and I am still crying. It is such a blessing that you and Bill met and what a blessing when he left us he was happy. Thank you again Parker for loving him. That leaves our family with alot of comfort. We will talk soon.

HUGGS & PEACE,

BILLS COUSIN,

TEDDIE-ANN & AUNTIE MARY

p.s. he has alot of family that loved him but we all lost touch.##imported-begin##Teddie Ann##imported-end##

“ My dear Bill. you were my strength. You made me laugh, you made me see the world differently. You widened my horizons. You taught me and Alyssa so much. She misses you honey. I miss you too. Otis keeps sitting by the door waiting for you to come home.

Tell Shane I said "hi." You two are probably someplace tropical and having drinks on the beach. Enjoy and have fun.

Remember, love never dies. I love you baby, until we meet again.

Yours forever,

Parker###imported-begin###Parker Todd###imported-end##

“ Willie- I often wondered where you were, how you were doing. I would ask Teddi if she knew where you were. It is comforting to know that you had a family that loved and cared for you...I am glad for that. You had a very hard childhood and I wish someone would have rescued you...you didn;t deserve to have to live that life. I pray that you rest in peace.
