“ We were so sorry to hear about your loss. Please know that our thoughts and prayers are with you. The following Apache prayer has comforted us in times of sorrow, so we share it with you now and hope it helps:

*"Do not stand at my grave and weep
I am not there, I do not sleep.
I am a thousand winds that blow;
I am the diamond glints on snow.
I am the sunlight on ripened grain;
I am the gentle autumn's rain.
When you awaken
In the morning's hush,
I am the swift uplifting rush
Of quiet birds in circled flight.
I am the soft star
that shines in the night.
Do not stand at my grave and cry.
I am not there, I did not die.
