

Bonnie Faye Roe

October 28, 1958 - December 18, 2023

Bonnie Faye Roe passed away peacefully at home surrounded by her family, on December 18, 2023. She was 65 years old.

Bonnie was born on October 28, 1958, in Easton Maryland to Robert Lee Roe Sr and Elsie Louise Dyer. An incredibly strong and hard-working woman, she enjoyed working on the water, farming, and landscaping. She spent several years working for Standard Fusee, as well as UPS, until finally finding the job of her life, caretaking at Duxbury Point in Bozeman.

Bonnie was a faithful Christian who loved her Lord Jesus. She loved the sunshine and working outdoors with her hands. Her biggest pride and joy was caring for her granddaughters Macy and Myka. Bonnie was an animal lover, having many cats, and feeding anything that lived outdoors. Bonnie had a smile that would light up a room. She will be remembered as a strong and graceful woman.

She is preceded in death by her daughter Annie Faye Schmitt, and brothers Robert Lee Roe Jr and Mike Gallagher.

She is survived by her daughter April Motovidlak and her husband Johnny, siblings Shawn Gallagher, Kelly Gallagher, Casey Gallagher, Josh Gallagher, and Donnie Roe, grandchildren Macy and Myka Motovidlak, and several nieces and nephews.

In lieu of flowers, please consider donating to Talbot Hospice in Easton, MD.

“ I'm sorry to learn of Bonnie's passing. She was such a light to be around. Nothing fake. She was the same person every time you saw her. She was a spit fire and so much fun to be around. She is her with Faye and I can only imagine that joyful reunion. Peace be with you my friend.

“ Dearest April, you know how much your mom meant to us Blonds. She was our guardian angel at Duxbury Point. My mom and dad just adored her and will be so pleased to see her again. That place was everything to us and she always made it so beautiful. I will never forget her lovely smile or that fabulous laugh. An indomitable, proud, kind and wonderful person with such a huge heart. Thank you for being in our lives Bonnie. Much love to you all, Rebecca x
