

Bonnie McLemore Hooker

August 6, 2003

Bonnie McLemore Hooker, 68, an Army wife, homemaker, former Red Cross executive in Loudon county, Virginia and Tehran, Iran, died 6 August at Talbot Hospice, Easton.

Mrs. Hooker traveled the world with her Army officer husband during his 31 year career, living in Germany, Iran, the Philippines, Saudi Arabia, various Army posts in the U.S., and many years between those assignments in the Washington area. An experienced traveler, she enjoyed touring many countries, including Egypt, The Soviet Union, China and Western Europe, including England, Ireland, Wales and her ancestral homeland, Scotland. A registered descendant of Pocahontas, she was also recognized as a member of the Scottish clan Campbell and the Irish clan Ormond.

She was born in Jackson, Mississippi and attended high school in Meridian before going to the University of Mississippi, where she married her husband in 1955.

Following her husband's retirement from the Army in 1987, they resided in Preston, near Dover Bridge on Edmondson Creek in Caroline county.

A recognized cross-stitch authority, her club memberships included the Talbot County Women's Club, the Questers, and the Antiques Club. She was a well-known bridge player in several organizations in Talbot County.

Survivors include her husband of 48 years, retired Army colonel Richard Hooker, two daughters, Dorothy Hooker Pearce, Mary Anne Martin, a son, lieutenant colonel Richard D. Hooker, Jr., USA, and five grandchildren.

A memorial service will be held at 11 a.m. on Friday, 15 August at the Fellows, Helfenbein and Newman funeral home, followed by a reception at the Talbot County Women's Club. Interment will follow at a later date at Arlington National Cemetery.

Donations in lieu of flowers are requested to be made to the Talbot Hospice Foundation, 586 Cynwood Drive, Easton, MD, 21601.

Funeral arrangements are by Fellows, Helfenbein and Newnam of Easton.
