“ What a beautiful video of "Mudder" as we called her. Mary, you were so sweet and funny. Gosh how we laughed at work, danced in the parking lot, took care of our kitty and Princess the dog there and how well fed we were thanks to you. I will miss you my friend. I think of you whenever I see your beautiful handwriting on something, whenever I see Tastycakes, chocolate covered cherries and smell coffee brewing. You brought a light to our office that has now been extinguished. Rest in peace my sweet friend. Love, Kathy

“ my Aunt Bootie would make everyone laugh at our family 4th of July cookouts...she would put yellow balloons in her brassiere! Then when I was sad, going thru a divorce, she would keep me company and show me how to make theeee best beef stroganoff. I grew up seeing my Aunt and cousin often. She was the most amazing aunt, woman (plus she was beautiful). I miss you....family should be kept close no matter what.

Tammy-you should know you were her everything...if you need an ear ad some love, call 443-531-9929
