

Brad P. Wolfe

October 25, 2007

Brad P. Wolfe of Federalsburg died suddenly on Thursday, October 25, 2007, at Harbor View Hospital, Baltimore. He was 24.

Born in Baltimore on February 4, 1983, he was the son of Raymond and Mary Hagner Wolfe of Federalsburg. A graduate of Old Mill High School in Anne Arundel County, he excelled in sports especially his recorded breaking achievements in weight lifting. Brad played little league with the Williamsport Association and later played softball. After he graduated in 2001, he moved with his family from Glen Burnie to Federalsburg. Following in his brothers footsteps, he began a career as a tree trimmer where he worked for various companies, most recently Davey Tree Experts of Severn, MD.

Brad loved to hunt, fish, and spend time with his family and friends. He loved children and was an outstanding father figure to his fiancé's two children.

In addition to his parents he is survived by two brothers: Eric Wolfe and his wife Christine of Federalsburg, Derik Wolfe and his wife Cheryl of Denton, his fiancé to whom he was to be married to this fall, Michelle Drouillard of Federalsburg, her children Trey and Darryl; three nieces: Sara, Mercedes, Ashlyn, and one nephew, Hunter.

Funeral services will be held at St. Mark's United Methodist Church, Easton on Wednesday, October 31, 2007, at 8:00 P.M. where friends may call from 2 to 4 P.M. and 6 to 8 P.M.

Burial will be held on Thursday, November 1, 2007 at Noon at Spring Hill Memorial Gardens, Hebron, MD.

Arrangements are by Fellows, Helfenbein and Newnam Funeral Home, P. A., Easton.
