“ Please accept my sincere condolences. The loss of one so dear is indeed a tragedy. The faithful man Job asked: "If a man dies, can he live again." Job knew the answer to this question because he followed it with: "I will wait all the days of my compulsory service Until my relief comes. You will call, and I will answer you. You will long for the work of your hands." Job 14:14,15 Job was keenly aware of God's promise to resurrect those asleep in the dust of the earth. Daniel 12:2 May meditating on being reunited with Brandon right here on earth under perfect conditions, no sickness, strife, mourning or suffering of any kind bring you comfort. Rev. 21:3,4

“ I did not have the pleasure in knowing Brandon, but I did know his mom Lynn. She was such a loving and caring person so I am sure her son was too. May God Bless and give strength to his children and his family during this difficult time and may they hold on to the wonderful memories of their time with him. Rest in Peace young soul!

“ I only knew you for a little under a year..but you have been an influence, you and Tommy both. You two have seen me grow/mature in such a short time period..Thanks to you two I straightened myself out and kicked myself in gear at/for work. This week has been tough..as each day passes, I feel a little better but it just does not feel the same there without you. A piece of the puzzle may be gone..but surely never forgotten. There is soo much I want to say..but to simplify it, for the short time that I knew you and worked with you, I've considered you a good friend. That will never change..I miss you dude, Rest In Peace..I send my warmest regards to the entire Mitchell Family. Take care in this tough time you all!
