“ Dear Alex,
My condolences to you and your family. I know this has been a difficult time for all of you. I'm sorry I never met your mother, but I can only imagine what a wonderful person she was to raise such a loving and caring daughter. I'm sending this prayer of St. Teresa to you because it has helped me many times to get through life's challenges. I hope it will do the same for you.

The prayer of St. Teresa:

*May today there be peace within.
May you trust God that you are exactly where you are meant to be.
May you not forget the infinite possibilities that are born of faith.
May you use these gifts that you have received,
and pass on the love that has been given to you...
May you be content knowing you are a child of God...
Let this presence settle into your bones and allow your soul the freedom to sing, dance, praise, and love.
It is there for each and every one of us.*

*With all of my love,
Kathy*

“ How beautiful to see so many guests lighting candles.
It's sort of like your lighting the way toward what is promised.....for if you "believe", than you realize and acknowledge, there is more to our life than this "earthly" one, there is a "heavenly" life, a "heavenly" place accessible to all.
It's a place that has been promised to us by "our" heavenly father.
It's a place where there is nothing but sweetness and love, where there is no fear and no pain.
It's a place where we will be reunited with our family and friends.
It's a place we can not see until the time is right.

Sadly for us, Brenda's "earthly" life has ended but, her "heavenly" life has just begun.
It's through her situation she was able to show, anyone who was paying attention, just how we should handle and accept the "things" that are out of our control.

Brenda presented her family and her friends with one last "message" or I guess you could say one last "gift" before she passed.....and that message or that gift was her ability to show such "Amazing Grace".

Let's learn from Brenda and be glad for her "gift".
And let's "try" each and everyday to bring out the righteousness of her "Amazing Grace" into our "earthly" lives.
And then if anyone is paying attention, they will inherit from Brenda's "gift" also.

My deepest sympathies to Brenda's family.....oh how lucky you were to have her.

“ *Dear family of Brenda,
I am sorry for your loss.
I wish to share with you comfort from the scriptures..
The Bible holds out a wonderful hope for our loved ones who have fallen asleep in death.
Please read John 5:28,29 in your Bible.
Another wonderful future promise is found at Revelation 21:3,4 where it states that sickness, pain and death will be no more. The former things will have passed away.
As you read these texts in your own Bible, may they be of comfort to you.

A few years ago, I had the privilege in going on a bus trip to New York with her and her sister Debbie. It warmed my heart to see these two share so much laughter and love between them. Sisters that are best friends are a true blessing. Brenda has showed us how to be a wonderful sister, mother, daughter, friend and wife. She will be truly missed.

“ *To Brenda's Family and friends: There will never be enough words to express our love for Brenda. She was a young woman that surely loved her family and many friends. Her life was filled with much joy, peace and love. We always ask "Why", but the only person that can answer that question is our Dear Lord. She truly was an angel here on earth and is one now in heaven. Her inspiration to all of us will never be forgotten and her love for others will remain in many, many hearts. What courage she had and we all learned so much from her. Until the end, she thought about her family and was making sure they would be taken care of when she left them. Brenda's love and legacy will live on for many years and yes she was a "Beautiful Person". Let us all learn something from her. I should have put and between our names, Sorry. We did want Donald and Norma Jean to know they are in our prayers as well as Brenda's family. It is so sad to loose such a beautiful and sweet young lady. We have three friends this past year who have lost their daughters at age 50. We have a daughter, Anne that age and can't imagine the pain and loss.you all are experiencing. At last she is at piece and won't suffer any more. I know she is in God's hands and will be watching over you all. We miss our friends since moving to Fl., but we do love it here and are very close to our son and his wife and they are so good ot us. We remember our friends and will keep this family in our prayers Frank and Paige Walbert, Palm Bay,Fl.

“ Sympathies go out to the Dean and Abel families and friends. Those that knew Brenda were blessed by her grace and laughter, those that did not will get an opportunity to meet her on the other side. I am happy she is not suffering anymore but so sorry this has happened to such a dear friend , and at such a young age. Brenda is a treasure! Will continue to keep you Richard, Carly and Alex and extended family in prayer.

“ *Abel and Dean Families,
I will always have a special place in my heart for Brenda. She was so instrumental to me when I was diagnosed with having this dreadful disease. I will never forget her willpower and her bravery. What an angel God gave us here on earth to enjoy, and now she is truly an angel with our Father in Heaven. May God bless you all and give you peace in this difficult time. Brenda will never be forgotten.*

“ Abel and Dean Families- I am so sorry for your loss and that you must endure this difficult time. Brenda fought a long hard battle, but each and every one of you supported her until the end. She is now a beautiful angel in heaven and has been freed from her pain and suffering. May God grant you peace and comfort. Special love to Alex who was an angel to my Mom during her last days.
