“ I met Brent through his/our involvement with The Maryland Society of Surveyors. Brent was a good friend and a good surveyor who was always ready to give whatever help he could to his fellow surveyors. Brent will be deeply missed by the surveying community.##imported-begin##Tom O'Connor##imported-end##

“ Dear Nancy and Family,

With great sorrow, Erleen and I extend our deepest sympathies to you. Brent was a special man, a leader, and a friend. We learned much from him during our time in the Maryland Jaycees. I am especially thankful for his advice and guidance during my year as Militia Commander.

You are in our thoughts and prayers. May God keep you during this difficult time!

“ Nancy,

Both Cheryl and I were really saddened to hear of Brent's passing. He will truly be missed but the memories of him and the impact he had on so many people will last forever.

If at all possible, Cheryl and I would have been there to support you in these troubling times but geography prevents us from coming. Please accept our condolences and we want you to know that Brent was someone that we both looked up to and wanted to emulate.

“ Nancy and family, I was blessed to have met such a kind wonderful man through the Jaycees. Brent was a leader and teacher. He taught me how to have confidence in myself in becoming a local president and state officer of the Jaycees. I will always remember the 80's and how much fun we all had in the Maryland Jaycees. This Militia Member,#478 will always remember Brent.##imported-begin##Deneen Rickwood##imported-end##

“ I am sorry to hear of his passing. He was on the MyFamily webiste (San Vito, Italy), and contributed much to it. I will say a prayer for him when I get to the top of Squaw Peak, here in Phoenix, Arizona. I hike there 5 days a week and will have him in my thoughts on Tuesday morning. Again, my deepest sympathies to you all.##imported-begin##Janet Keyser##imported-end##

“ Dear Spicer family,
Brent will be missed by the many people he touched throughout his life. I know that he touched me in many ways, through the Jaycees, and Maryland Crab Corps. He was always humorous, supportive of others, and cynical when needed. He was a dear friend of all of us who had the pleasure of meeting him and spending time with him.

God Bless you Brent for all you have done for your family and so many others around you.
