I feel that all of these kids are mine. I know, 2 are. But how many time I woke to find Kelsey, Taylor, Angel & Brian all in bed together. Cuddled up together. Poor Brandon, he was sleeping on the couch. Having you all around reminded me of growing up in an "open" home. Very special times. I will miss Brian like a son. I just don't get it. Why?

“ Brian meant a lot to everyone and me. He was my best guy friend and always had a smile that could light up anyone's day and gosh it was a contagious smile I would even say. He was like a brother in my eyes always there when I needed him if it was just to talk or maybe I just needed a hug. The first time I met Brian was in Kindergarten and from there we became really good friends. He was goofy, smart, artistic, handsome, lovable and so many other amazing things. I have so so so many great memories with him that I will always remember and cherish throughout my life. I know a lot of you are going to miss him. I know I'm going to miss him. I know that he is probably looking down on us, watching us from above the clouds playing songs his ukulele and smiling and wanting us to smile and to tell us that "Every little thing is gonna be alright". You were a great friend to many and I'm sure none of us will ever forget you cuss I know that I wont. You will always be in my heart for as long as I live and forever on and hey one day ill see you again and we can finally do the things we promised to each other we would do though are life but just in heaven or another life. I love you. <3
