Until We meet again my friend. I'll never look ant the full moon again without remembering your magic. How appropriate is it that the first meteor shower of 2021 starts this evening. It is if you are still lighting up the sky. You will be deeply missed as you were a blessing to many. A special ornament is and will remain on my tree for you. You will not be forgotten. I'll never forget you taking me to the store and buying all the ingredints for me to make Christmas lasagna. You had a very giving heart. May you rest in peace beautiful soul.

“ Brian was a very polite quiet young man. He was a wonderful neighbor, who check on me almost daily. In the short time he lived in the condo, he became an important part of our buildings family. He knew just what to say to brighten everyone's day. We will miss his smile and his corny jokes. My family will always remember him. He even had a soft spot for my sweet granddaughter. Brian, I was truly blessed to have you in my life, even if it was just for such a short time.

“ My deepest condolences to Zachary, Nora, Tara, Henry and the rest of the family. I wish there was something I could do. Brian changed my life in so many ways. He was my daughter, Paisley’s “special friend”. She said it best “he’s so special to us!” My heart is so hurt. There was so much left to do. I’ll never look at the moon without thinking of you. On the first night of the full moon, you had magic powers for Paisley. I’ll never forget the biggest, most beautiful, Christmas tree we had last year. And I’ll never be able to thank you enough for playing Santa last year, it was so over the top, like you! I’m glad that we got to spend your last Christmas together. Paisley is holding Coco, the pup so close to her, since learning you’ve earned your wings. I’m holding on to the memories and will forever cherish what we shared. Please guide us loved ones, we weren’t ready to lose you. Forever to infinity 💔🕊️
Love 💕

“ My heart aches for your family. I will always remember Brian's never ending devilish grin that shared his love of life. How he would tease Tara until she would stomp that foot, put her hand on her hip and put him in his place. He loved his little sister so much. Such fond memories of you all during my time in Church Hill. Prayers for you all during this difficult time.

“ My heart is heavy for his family. Prayers, peace, and hugs to you all. Brian was such a nice kid. He was good-hearted, smart, fun-loving, down-to-earth, and genuine. The world may have lost a light, but that light is now in Heaven to glow there. I'm sure his spirit will live on in his son, sister Tara, the rest of his family, and his friends. ❤️
