

Brian Johnson Olmstead

January 15, 1950 - May 28, 2023

Dr. Brian J. Olmstead of Chester, MD, passed away on May 28, 2023, at the age of 73.

Dr. Olmstead was born in Islip, NY, and grew up in Flemington, NJ.

He graduated from Hunterdon Central High School in Flemington, NJ; received a B.S. from Muhlenberg College in Allentown, PA; a M.S. from Rutgers University in New Brunswick, NJ; and a DDS from Georgetown University Dental School.

He married Diane C. Walters in 1975 at St Martin's Church in Arnold, MD. They divorced in 1989.

After dental school, he was commissioned as a Lieutenant in the United States Navy, serving in the Navy Dental Corps while stationed at Camp Pendleton in Oceanside, CA.

Dr. Olmstead moved to the Eastern Shore of Maryland in 1982 with his family. He opened his own dental practice in 1985 and practiced dentistry on Kent Island for more than thirty years.

Dr. Olmstead was an Eagle Scout, avid golfer, and amateur astronomer. He enjoyed doing crossword puzzles, gardening, and spending time with his three grandchildren.

Brian was predeceased by his mother, Helen D. Olmstead, and his father, Dr. Edwin V. Olmstead. He is survived by his son, Jonathan B. Olmstead; grandchildren, Annie, James, and Samuel Olmstead of Ellicott City, MD; and his two brothers, Christopher D. Olmstead of Atlanta, GA, and Dr. Edwin J. Olmstead of Plymouth, MA.

A visitation will be held on Wednesday, June 28, 2023, from 4 p.m.-6 p.m. at Fellows, Helfenbein & Newnam Funeral Home in Chester, with a memorial service to begin at 6 p.m.
