“ Dear Brittany,

I know that was you smiling through the sun today. Your piece of work mother stood up and told all of us (the place was packed to honor you sweet baby girl) that you were going to put her through the Brittany Byington School of Depression and smack it out of her if she ever felt depressed. That is how she is making it through. I am so honored to know you .. Your ceremony was the most uplifting beautiful and positive service I have ever been to .. Just like you . You have the most positive spirit and soul and you were so determined and goal oriented and successful at everything you did. The short time you were here you made more of an impression and inspired more people with that attitude then you could ever imagine . Everyone is going to do Acts of Kindness in your name your Aunt Chrissy and Aunt Debbie made yellow ribbon tied certificates for all of us. The fire trucks had the ladders raised high for you with the American Flag waving in the air and all your fellow fire company colleagues saluted you .. What a beautiful day all my love to you and the memory I will always remember was the day Shannon took us to that Vegan restaurant and we both vomited the nasty "milkshake" We will meet again at a burger joint !! All my love such a beautiful day xoxo Sonia “ Brittany was a sweet girl. I played field hockey with her from Rec league to high school. She always worked so hard toward her goals and never gave up. She had a lot going for her, joining the fire department, becoming an EMT, she was a smart, happy, bubbly girl who's smile will always be remembered. I'll always remember the memories I have with Brittany, chatting on the sidelines at practice and partnering up for drills. Though she was taken too soon from this world, she will never be forgotten. My prayers are with your family Brittany, the Byington and Myles family, and to Greg and everyone who loved you. You touched the lives of many. Rest in peace.

“ To the family,
I would like to extend my heartfelt condolences on the loss of your loved one, Brittany. The passing of a loved one can leave a person feeling lost and heartbroken. However, the bible is a sure source of comfort for those who have lost loved ones in death. I hope you find comfort in knowing that soon all those in the memorial tombs or grave will be raised up back to life in perfect conditions free from mourning, outcry, pain, and death (John 5:28,29; Revelation 21:3-5). These are just few of many comforting scriptures. If you would like to know more about how to cope with the loss of your loved one, please feel free to visit www.jw.org.

I'd like to leave an afterglow of smiles when life is done.

I'd like to leave an echo whispering softly down the ways,

Of happy times and laughing times and bright and sunny days.

I'd like the tears of those who grieve, to dry before the sun;

Of happy memories that I leave when life is done.

“ Brittany was one of those people that lit up the room without needing the lights turned on. She was a caring individual that made sure others were taken care of before her. Brittany was a angel with a giggle that would make you laugh even if you didn't know why she was laughing. She would make you smile and ask you if something was wrong or talk to you even if it was through Facebook she could tell if something was wrong or you were down.

I remember when she had turn of age to get rid of her Barney VHS Tapes, she passed them on to my kids and I remember her laughing because my husband Shawne told her that "No more Barney please I have been watching Barney for weeks now", so the following week she shows up with Uncle Davy and a brown bag filled with....you guess it Barney VHS Tapes. Brittany laughed and she didn't hand them to us she handed them right to our daughter Abigail. Brittany said "Here you go Abby more Barney so you can watch them with your Dad". We laughed and she did too, and Shawne told her to wait he would make sure he saved them for her birthday parties.

Heaven gain a very special angel, and she will truly be missed by so many people. We love you Brittany, miss you and girl spread the angel wings and fly high and watch over everyone like I know you will.

To Brittany's Family: Our prayers and blessings are with all of you at this time. We never know what we are going to face each day, but God surely has plans for all of us. Brittany was welcomed with open arms by our Good Lord and he will give you the strength and love to face each new day. The many memories you have of Brittany will always remain in your hearts. We always ask the question "why", but don't get an answer, but God knows why and something good will come out of this in the future. She left a wonderful legacy for many young people. Please know there are many praying for you and your family. Blessings and Love, Gene and Lynda Palmatary

“ I had the pleasure of teaching Brittany for 3 years. She was a proud member of the CMS Band and the 2009 Junior All-Shore Band. I wish peace for her family as they deal with this loss.

“ To Brittany's family; I didn't know your daughter; however, the readings on Facebook, she was an amazing girl! I am so sorry and broken hearted for the tragedy of someone losing a child. May God comfort you and the memories you have of Brittany help you through this very difficult time. We never understand why things happen the way they do, I too lost a daughter almost 4 years ago.
Please know that your family is in my thoughts and prayers. May God Bless you and keep you strong. Kim and Catey Crew
