Many of the tributes posted speak of a kind, friendly, sweet gentle man which indeed Bryan was. My cherished memories are of a blonde, ruddy-faced, smiling little boy. Bryan came happily to kindergarten every day armed with the unconditional love of his family, stylishly dressed, his milk money, and all other necessities. While he attended to his classroom duties, it was obvious that outdoors was his realm which he ruled with grace. Bryan was a playground leader. Many of his classmates gathered around him because he treated all of them the same. His knowledge (at 5 years of age) of our waters would make any "chicken-necker" envious. He could describe hard-crabbing, oystering, soft-crabbing, etc. in great detail. The world is diminished with his passing. God bless him and keep him. God grant peace to all who loved this precious soul!

“ Eddie,Patsy,Linda,Earl and Lisa, I have many fond memories at the house on Piney Creek Road, that I will forever cherish. Many children in that neighborhood enjoyed that beautiful porch and all the games that were played there, I hope that you too are able to find that special memory with Bryan and are able to hold it near and dear to your hearts. God's blessings to you all , Bryan will be truly missed.
