I grew up in Trappe, and Calvin hung around us. He was like a big brother. My Mom Anna "Luray" Jones loved him as one of her own. I remember when I was young, Calvin lived down from the store and My Mom was driving her big yellow station wagon and made a stop at the stop sign in front of the store, and this young boy named Ray threw a snake in the window of our car and Calvin was to the rescue. He grabbed the snake and threw it back at Ray and said never hurt Mom and her family again. Such good memories. We moved to Cambridge and only saw him here and there. Last time I saw him he was living in Trappe at the old Bank. My Mom passed 4 years ago, so I know she will take care of him. Love sent to the family. Heart and Prayers being sent.
