“ To Kitty, Toni, and Jenny, my heartfelt sorrow and sympathy for this shocking loss of your "baby" brother. I hadn't seen him since he was little--he grew into such a handsome man! At 51, he surely wasn't ready to leave, and I know you couldn't have been ready to let him go. I hope that your gathering in his memory helped your hearts begin to heal and that they will continue to do so as you remember and celebrate his life.

With hugs for you all,
Nancy Setzer Luria

“ We will miss you more than you can imagine. Even though we hadn't seen in you in 10 years, our relationship was one that didn't matter the time or distance we had between us, we could always pick-up where we left off. Alan, the kids and I won't forget canoeing the potomac river, or vacationing in the Outer Banks. Thanks for all the great memories.

“ I recently read about the death of your dear loved one. Even though we are not acquainted please accept our sincerest condolences. Job 1:2,18,19 & Job 10:1 says: " I will give vent to my concern about myself. I will speak in the bitterness of my soul." This was after the loss of his 10 children. Job needed to vent his concerns, he needed someone to talk to. Having someone to talk to may help you and your family cope during this difficult time. Please visit www.jw.org for more encouraging bible based examples of endurance.
