“ Going to miss you my friend. We'd known each other for about 60 years since we both grew up in Bel Air. You were one of the nicest people anyone could have known. Lots of fond memories and laughter.

“ Carl, my friend. We celebrated our birthdays together while in grade school, and enjoyed good times. I haven't seen you in a while and didn't know you were sick. Your friends and family will miss you and your smile and always a good word. So sorry you're gone. It's hard to believe. Words cannot say how you'll be missed. God bless you and all your family. I don't know what else to say. Your friend, John Richardson
