“ Carlton and I shared time together hunting and fishing. I remember when we went fishing early one afternoon in the bay. We had a small row boat and rowed for what seemed like hours. We started fishing and this storm came up from no where. When you get a storm on bay, you better get to land, especially if you are in a row boat. After being drenched and rowing, and rowing we finally got to shore. I thought for sure we would drown and I will never forget that. I know he loved his family and my sister Margaret, his wife. They both loved their children grand children and great grand children. You will be missed! May you rest in peace bother-in-law. I will be praying for the family!
