“ Sadness fills my heart to learn of Carlie's death. Beauty emanated from Carlie in her person and her nature. I always delighted in joining her at the bridge table and occasional luncheons. She was a charming, gracious hostess, a good conversationalist, and a great companion. I truly miss her presence, but hold joyful memories in my heart.

Rest in peace, dear Carlie.

“ My friendship with Carlyle lasted 85 years. We were 13 years old (1937) and freshman in high school. We went on to college together and kept in touch all these years. It's very sad to me to lose her, but I have so many fond memories that will never be forgotten. And I love all of you - the children of Carlyle. I'm sure she's now resting in peace with John.

“ Carly was an excellent bridge player. We had so much fun at duplicate bridge and she always came up with a way to tease. She was a beautiful kind lady who is truly missed.
